Dedication

Dedicated to the Creator of Heaven and Earth- God Almighty.
With Him "All things are possible".

of malnutrition, lack of education, low life expectancy and substandard housing are also associated with poverty. On the other hand, urban income are higher and services as well as facilities are not adequate. Notwithstanding, the urban poor typically housed in slums or squatter settlements, overcrowding, bad sanitation and many others. To reduce poverty means total improvement of rural areas in terms of health care, housing, schools and so on.
